Two More of the Prisoner's Characteristic

Testimony in the case of William Sindram, on trial for shooting and killing his landlady. Mrs. Crave, on the 26th of January last, was concluded yesterday. The prisoner looked in good humor as he took his place in court. He had expressed himself to the Deputy Sheriffs who have charge of him as pleased at the effect years in prison. The court room was thronged.

WILLIAM SINDRAM.

Towas, Thurslay, D.c. i, 1981.

Towas, Thurslay, D.c. i, 1981.

Dras Sin: When Judge Cowing a few days ago sentenced Michael Hackett to imprisonment for life he said that this country just now was full of murderers who claim, or have it claimed for them, that they are insane. Cowing, I conclude, therefore, is of the outlinn that many same murderers leggin insanity, in order to escape the State prison and the gallows. The motion that had been made to costpone sentence, so that medical experts might pass on Hackett's samity was accordingly demed by his Honor. Now, I am indicted for murder in the first degree. I have never claimed, or desired my lawyers to claim for me, that I am insane; still, they have entered the plea of insanity in my defence. It is not necessary that I give you the particulars of my case in this case, as I have already written to you a rull account of my case. The extenuating circumstances in my case are that there was no premeditation about the mirder I committed (if it can be called a murder), and the woman I shot did not die until nearly five moints after the shooting. Her suffering from tunners, before and after the shooting. Her suffering from tunners, before and after the shooting, may create a doubt in the jury mind as to whether her death was due altogether to the pistol shot wound, and I don't think it at all likely that I will be to the sum when the hard the felt confident of being able to haug me. He has turned over my case into your hands. You will no doubt do your best to hang me. But has turned over my case into your hands. You will no doubt do your best to hang me, but even if you succeed I will have to thank myself forti, for I could easily have saved my neck by refraining from writing letters, or pleading sully to murder in the second decree.

My lawyers, I suppose, will have to yelv chiefly upon writing letters, or pleading suitly to morder in the second decree.

My in yers, I suppose, will have to rely chiefly upon the letters I wrote during my imprisonment in the Toohis to the minimality, although they really prove the more than the constant of the took of the both hat I have in the woman I shoot, never regretsed having shot her, and don't care if I hang for it. As for the mania I may have had for inventing, it does not necessarily follow that a man is a lumate because he nivents. I sm willing enough to be considered insane and to be sent to some lunatic asylum for a year or two, instead of being sent to State prison for life or house. But I am a poor man, and poor men as a rule, if they do not cheat the gallows by pleasing suitiv to murder in the second degree or maniaughter in the first degree, are always hung or sent to Sing Sing for life.

Please read this letter to the jury at my trial, so that I am not afraid of being hung. A murderer's case must be a very bad one, indeed, if $200 or $100 won't save him from the gallows. Should he be so unfortunate as not to be able to raise any money at all for his delence, then he must be satisfied to go to prison for twenty vears or for life, or to be hung. Yours truly, We sixpase.

The reading of the letters being concluded,

The reading of the letters being concluded, the prosecution announced its case closed, and court was adjourned, in respect to the memory of Judge Barbour, whose death was announced in the morning. Counsel will sum up to-day.

The Mutilated Body of a Man Exposed for On Wednesday morning at about half past 6 o'clock a man crossing the Harlem Railroad at Ninety-seventh street was run over and instantly killed by a train coming out of the tunnel. The body was taken to the railroad station at 125th street and laid upon the platform, and the Coroners' office was notified. Coroner Herrman instructed Deputy Coroner Waterman to attend to the case, but there were filteen other cases on hand that day, and the permit for removal was not given until half past 9 o'clock that night. For two hours the body remained uncovered at the station, and during that time a lady who saw it, unexpectedly, fainted. A tarpaulin a lady who saw it, unexpectedly, fainted. A tarpailin was then laid over it.

It was the body of a man about 30 years of age. He had had with him a new copy of Bowser's "Differential and Integral Calculus," punished by I. Van Nostrami & Ca., and a catalogue of the books of the same dru. The firm were unable to identify him by the description. A button hook and a slip of paper bearing the names through Geoghegan, William Kanney, and James Smith were found in one of the pockets. The clutters were a black overcoat, a brown undercoat and vest, black trousers, gatters, and a Derby hat.

The Memphis Walking Match.

MEMPHIS, Dec. 8.-Harriman, Hart, O'Leary, Hart and O'Leary against Harriman and Schmehl, Hart Schmehl heel and toe. Hart completed his sixtle th mile in 13 hours 27 minutes; O'Leav. 58 miles in 13 hours 34 minutes; Schmehl, 36 miles in 13 hours 50 minutes, and Harriman, 56 miles in 13 hours 30 minutes. Hart was off the track for 25 hours but was in fine condition this morning, and going at his usual apid gait all the other were doing well, except Harriman, who complained of being a little stiff.

HARRISBURG, Dec. 8 .- The State authorities to-day made application to the court for a beach warrant for the arrest of the officers of the State Capital Mutusi Insurance Comiany of this city, on a charge of conspiracy, but the Court refused the application, on the ground that it was not sitting as a committing wasterate. The investment of the books of the company, made by Insurance Commissioner Forester, is said to have developed some startling discrepancies, but it has not yet been inade public. A motion was made to dissolve the company, and after argument an index, or company to the content of the company to show cause why the concern should not be dissolved.

Two Murderers Shot.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 8.—Two brothers, Hiram and Valentine Mercer, while resisting arrest in November last, shot and killed a deputy sheriff in Decatur County. last, shot and killed a deputy sherin in Decauty County, flows. They escaped and came to Missouri, and went to Christian County, near Springfield, where a brother of theirs owned a farm. Officers watch d the farm, and as certained that the murchers were in the institution odd. A trap was had for their capture on Monday, and white they were out hunting they were surrounded by a pease of afficers. The murderers attempted to fire on their capture, but their guess only snapped. The officers than opened fire with fatal results. One was killed instantly.

A Mining Riot Quelled, ST. Louis, Dec. 8.—At the Harris Mines, at Berkner, a few miles from East St. Louis, the striking coal miners gathered at 5 o'cluck this morning, severa coal miners gathered at 5 o'clock this marring, several hundreds strong, and established a coardon around the pits through which those skill working would have to pass. The Sheriff and a puese appeared on the scene, and the strikers retired. Later they returned in in-creased numbers, armed with revolvers. Affairs were critical, when the Sheriff and his posse bravels arrested several runghaders and quelied the robots for a time. The situation, however, is regarded as very critical.

A CRABBED CREATURE.

That nature cares for and enterious her even has hecome an established fact to all discrevers. Who does not love the sound of the brightly contributing waves leading from the phosphorescentises, as they break against the rocks in the summer might, until nature herself, wears of the mant, until tature herself, wany or the electation, turns the sounding stri le-ward the opposite shore, leaving arrand-ed some hadly mutilisted sham, when wanters solemnir on. Boterian fashion—with all its would's stre-upon its back? On the same teach may be found our rings. whose chief apology for existing at all events to be existing at all seems to be its autility to furnish a de rectable ment to fortunal bireds. him arraid; tuetefore, he wages war in his watery world uncensinely when once attacked. Although they he timnot be said to be devoit of understanding, having ten legs to assist his locomotion; this, however available little, for, when conquered, he never turns his back to his enemy, starting into a bold run, but, it's many call-ticians during electron time, stips off sideways. There comes a time in the life of this pognacious fellow when the years bring him more bone and muscle than be can dispose of with comfort, and he finds himself in a very tight place; his shoes pinch bim, and he begins to realize the practicability of applying to Dame Nature for more from, or a house in proportion to his increasing size. Nature slowly responds to the call, but in her own good time provides a new house, so that the enterprising little creature does not wander about homeless, but is provided for smitably, as was the old sailor, who dropped his rheumatism and crabbedness when he applied the Great German Remedy, ST. JACOBS OIL, This last however, may sound eather fishy to the skeptical reader, and to such we would reply in language too plain to be misunderstood—in words illustrating facts that even the waves of time cannot wash away or scaly epithets affect ST, JACOBS OIL to-day has rendered the lives and homes of myriads of sufferers brighter than everthe electric light can, which people pause to admire along
